

Vocabulary

Compromise Each side gives up something to reach an agreement

Ratify to approve something

Articles of Confederation Plan for a national government where states ~~would~~ would keep their freedom and independence

Constitution A statement of basic principles and laws of a nation or federal government - Americas written plan of govt

Legislative Branch part of the United States government that creates laws

Executive Branch branch of the United States government that is responsible for carrying out the laws

Judicial Branch part of the US government that interprets the law and administers justice.